

VISUAL: INT. RETIREMENT HOME REC ROOM – DAY

VISUAL: Seven SENIORS (early 70s-90s) are paired with seven HIGH SCHOOLERS (16-18). They socialize, laugh and truly enjoy each other’s company. Their TEACHER (40s) is stealthily handing out two movie tickets to some students.

VISUAL: WALT PHILLIPS (early 80s) sits playing chess against himself as JAYLEN TURNER (17) stands aloof futzing with two movie tickets, but within Walt’s peripheral vision. Without looking at Jaylen:

WALT: You play chess?

VISUAL: Walt starts to reset the board.

JAYLEN: (sarcastically) No, do you?

WALT: I’ll teach you.

JAYLEN: I’ll school you.

VISUAL: Walt gestures Jaylen to sit.

VISUAL: Jaylen reluctantly sits. Helps Walt reset the board with the black pieces in front of Walt. The white ones in front of Jaylen. Jaylen and Walt start playing... speed chess without a timer. It is obvious Jaylen knows how to play. Well.

JAYLEN: ‘Jaylen.’

WALT: Good guess, my name is ‘Walt.’

VISUAL: Jaylen cracks a smile.

JAYLEN: So, Walt, you’re supposed to save me?

WALT: What? Jaylen, I thought you were supposed to save me.

JAYLEN: Ha-ha. Figures they’d pair up two ‘misfits.’

WALT: ‘They’ think I have nothing left to give.

JAYLEN: And ‘they’ think that I’ll never have anything to give.

TOGETHER: Let’s prove them wrong.

VISUAL: They laugh.

WALT: I believe in you, kid.

– Denzel Washington

"You can't help getting older, but you don't have to get old." – Comedian George Burns

"Our generation has the ability and the responsibility to make our ever-more connected world a more hopeful, stable and peaceful place." – Natalie Portman
